

Stephanie Dedmon is currently the Director of the Business Solutions Delivery (BSD) division within the Department of Finance and Administration. BSD was created in late 2011 to build a team of experienced senior project directors, project managers and business analysts to help lead the state's most complex IT/business solution implementations and improve project delivery success rates. Stephanie joined the State of Tennessee in 2005 to lead the state's ERP implementation. She facilitated the procurement and statewide implementation of PeopleSoft and several third party vendor solutions (collectively known as Edison) managing a team of 115 full-time state employees and at peak, 150 vendor staff.

Stephanie is a charter member of the State of Tennessee Government Leadership Council and is serving on the Communications Committee. Prior to joining the State, Stephanie was an Associate Partner with Accenture in Nashville and served as project director on many public sector software implementations. Stephanie holds a Master of Business Administration from Tennessee Technological University (TTU) in Cookeville, Tennessee and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, also from TTU. She received her Project Management Professional certification in August of 2012.
